

ADVANCED
TECHNICAL RECRUITMENT

“We believe that by taking the time to understand our clients, and our candidates, we can make the most successful placements.”

ABOUT US

Advanced Technical Recruitment Ltd is a specialist Technical Recruitment Company with a strong focus on recruiting for various Technical, Scientific and Engineering industries.

Since our formation in 2006 we have grown and diversified to cover a wide range of industries, recruiting from Technician to Director level.

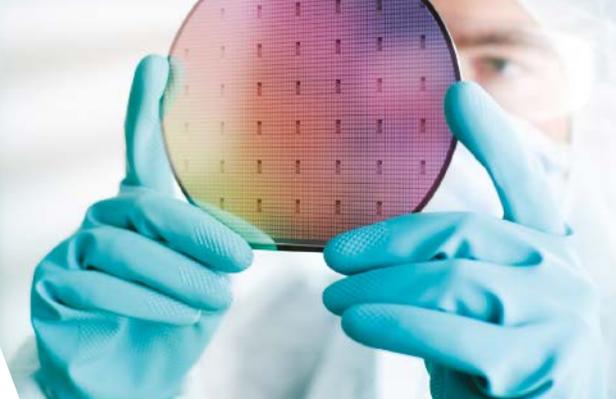

We have gained experience working with a wide range of clients from start-up to Blue Chip and have built ourselves a great reputation with some of the worlds most renowned companies.

Our team is key to our success, and key to filling your vacancy.

Each of our consultants focus on a slightly different industry sector, and as such each of them has built up a strong understanding of specific industries, and job types.

Our aim is to understand exactly what and who you are looking for, therefore allowing us to take the stress of recruiting away from you.

HOW WE WORK

The most difficult part of recruitment is sourcing candidates.

Each of our consultants take a proactive approach to sourcing candidates, from direct approach sourcing, to networking.
