

CRITICAL THINKING THROUGH CRIMINOLOGY

HUMANITIES - RESPONSIBLE CITIZENS

FROM CRIME SCENE TO CAREER: THINK LIKE A DETECTIVE

This course develops knowledge and understanding of the way crime and criminal justice operates and it covers areas such as crime in the community and crime scenes. You will be examining real criminal cases and examples to delve into the reasons why people commit crime and why crime is still prevalent in our communities today.

SKILLS FOCUS

COMMUNICATING

COLLABORATING

LEADING

CURIOSITY

CREATIVITY

CRITICAL THINKING

INITIATIVE

ADAPTING

FOCUSING

RECOGNITION OF ACHIEVEMENT

L6 NPA Criminology unit - Crime in the Community

LEARNING INTENTION, SUCCESS CRITERIA & CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Learning Intentions

I will:

- describe and categorise crimes in the community.
- identify different ways crime in the community is reported by the media.
- describe measures in place to address crime in the community.

Success Criteria

I can:

- describe how crimes are categorised by the police service.
- categorise the types of crime being reported in the community.
- name different mass media that report crime within the community.
- identify emotive language used in the reporting of crime by different media.

Career Opportunities

- Law enforcement
- Criminal Justice
- Legal Fields
- Private sector (Corporate Security, Risk Analyst).

The Four Capacities

