Additional Course Information

This is an ideal course for you, if you want to continue your studies in English but find the demands of Higher English too challenging. It's also ideal for you to pick up a Higher in a new subject area especially for S6 pupils.

This subject draws on skills acquired in English and Humanities and marries them together to study the classical world. This is an excellent way to develop your skills, progress to study at level 6 and achieve an understanding of how the classical world has shaped our modern one.
