Description

Offering incredible duplex studios with mezzanine levels and incredible views across Southwark thanks to the floor to ceiling windows, The Print Rooms offices are sure to impress. The studios on the lower floors feature striking minimalist design, with whitewashed walls, huge windows and wooden floors throughout. Your new neighbours would include software designers and not-for-profits organisations along with publishers of course! With an open plan, double-height reception, on-site cafe and co-working space, plus bookable meeting rooms you'll find everything you need. If you're looking to set down your business roots in a city-fringe location and in a wonderfully characterful part of town, get in touch and we'll find the perfect space for you.
