Procedures for Dealing with Complaints

It is the right of any student/learner to make a complaint against the policies and procedures of the Customised Curriculum, or against an individual member of staff.

It is the responsibility of Managers to action any complaint received and retains this information on file.

The following procedure details the actions to be taken both by the complainant and by the Management of Customised Curriculum. For complaints regarding a Course assessment decision, the Course Appeals Procedure is to be followed (Centre Policies and Procedures).

Procedure

Students/Learners can make a verbal or written complaint to their tutor, assessor or the Centre Manager about their problem. If the situation is not resolved students/learners have the right to make an official complaint by completing the 'Complaint form' available from the Centre Manager. A guide for students is published in all portfolios. The form should be returned to the Centre Manager who will acknowledge receipt within 2 working days and carry out investigations into the complaint.

Once the investigation has been made and an outcome derived, the Centre Manager will provide the complainant with a written response within ten working days. If it is not possible the Centre Manager will inform the complainant of any delay.

If after the Centre Manager has action the complaint, the complainant still feels that the complaint has not been given a satisfactory conclusion they may request a meeting with the Centre Manager to attempt to resolve the situation.

The Centre Manager will investigate the complaint and gather evidence and provide the complainant with a written record of the meeting and the outcome within ten working days. If this is not possible the Centre Manager will inform the complainant of any delay.

Appeals

If a complainant remains dissatisfied with the Centre Manager's response to their complaint, they may appeal in writing to the Company Director at Customised Curriculum.

The Chief Executive nominated representative, who should be a Senior Manager not previously involved in the case, will investigate the complaint and Centre Manager's response and report to the Chief Executive.

The Chief Executive will decide to:

- Uphold the original decision / dismiss the complaint as unfounded
- Refer the complaint back to an area and propose an amicable settlement
- Uphold or partially uphold the complaint, offer an apology, recommend appropriate steps be taken to address the issue and to avoid a similar circumstance arising in future

The decision of the Chief Executive is final, and the complainant will be advised in writing of the outcome within 10 working days.

A Senior Manager who has not previously been involved with the case will deal with the appeal if the Chief Executive is not available.

If following the above processes, the complainant does not feel that the matter has been resolved effectively, they have the right to apply to the Regulator in assistance to gain a satisfactory resolution.
