How does it work?

Recommend our cooking classes to your friends and let them know they can book a FREE no obligation class by signing up here.

Write both your name and your friend's name on this voucher. Tick which gift you would like (overleaf) and hand this voucher to your class leader. When your friend signs up to our Cook Stars classes, we will gift you with the item you have chosen. This is our way of saying 'thank you' for introducing them to our classes.

Please note: The offer is only open to existing class members. The guardian of new participants must register / book in for their first free session. In order for the class member to receive the thank you gift, their friend must then sign up with Cook Stars and pay in advance for at least 3 sessions. An individual can only be referred once, there is however no maximum to the number of different friends you can refer and gifts you can earn.
