

Husky Refrigerators Group Changes Hands

The Husky Refrigerators Group, founded in 1957 and owned and managed for the last 21 years by Geoff Thomasson, has been sold to Serge Kremer.

The Husky Group is based in Lutterworth Leicestershire and designs, manufactures and distributes innovative refrigerators ranging from small drinks cabinets to larger commercial units in the UK and throughout the world.

Serge Kremer said: "I am delighted to be able to acquire the Husky Group. I will be bringing fresh investment and growth plans to build on the firm base developed by Geoff, and am pleased that the company will remain a family business."

The Thomasson family were advised by Bill Eastwood of Nottinghamshire based Eastwood Anglo Corporate Finance Ltd, and by Martin Smith and Steve McElhone of Leicester law firm Spearing Waite LLP.

Serge Kremer was advised by Jon Warsop of UHY Hacker Young LLP, Nottingham, and by Austin Moore of Nottingham law firm Austin Moore & Partners LLP.

Grant Thornton UK LLP Leicester are auditors to Jupiter Industries Ltd, holding company of the Husky UK Group with Kaushik Bathia the partner responsible. Financial details of the transaction have not been disclosed.