... as well as Astrophysics as an option in A Level Physics.

Teaching guide: Astrophysics

This teaching guide provides background material for teachers preparing students for the optional topic of Astrophysics (section 3.9) for our A-level Physics specification (7408). It gives more detail on topics that teachers may not be familiar with and should be used alongside the specification. This guide is not a comprehensive set of teaching notes. It has been designed in response to feedback from teachers who taught the previous specification.
