

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BOOKING

A £50 non-refundable deposit is required at the time of booking to secure the date requested. This deposit is then deducted from the final cost of the disco.

- The final balance for the disco can be paid at any time up to one week before the event date.
- While every attempt is made to cater for all music tastes, we ask that any specific music choices are requested at least one week before the event date.
- If we are unable to attend the booked event due to circumstances beyond our control then we will endeavour to arrange a replacement disco to carry out the booking as requested. We will give as much notice as possible if this unlikely event occurs.
- When making a booking we ask for as much information as you can provide, for instance, start time, finish time, venue location, any special requirements.
- Our setup incorporates the latest L.E.D lighting and effects, if you or any person attending your event suffers from epilepsy then you must inform us and we will attempt to adjust the lighting to suit the requirements although this is not always possible.
- A full invoice will be provided at the time of booking, detailing the deposit paid and the outstanding balance. A final paid invoice will be provided on completion of the payment of any outstanding balance.
- The hirer will be responsible for any damage to equipment caused by guests
- We hold up to 10 million pounds cover for public liability insurance purposes for any injury to any person/property caused by us at an event.
- We will always provide a microphone to use for speeches/public announcements etc.
- All Our Equipment Has Been Fully PAT Tested for electrical safety.
